MEHEMET ALI, GENERALISSIMO.

Lord Derby Explains the Merits of the Pacific Policy of England.

> [BY CABLE TO THE HERALD.] LONDON, July 20, 1877.

The Herald's special correspondent at Itzkani telegraphs that "rumors are current there of the existence of a strong divergence of opinion between the Czar and the Grand Duke Nicholas. The former favors an early peace, while the latter insists upon taking Constantinople.

THEY GO NO PURTHER.

"The Fourth Russian Army corps, Lieutenant General Zoloff, which has recently arrived at Bucharest, will not cross the Danube, but will proceed to Giurgevo at present, returning to Russia immediately after the capture of Rustchuk. The fall of this town will indicate the termination of the war, being the last concession made by the Czar to the troops.

THE END NEAR AT HAND.

"Some corps have already received official intimation of their early return to Russia. M. Kitroivo, formerly Russian Consul at Constantinople, offers to wager a large amount that he will shortly resume his former functions at the city on the Golden Horn.

A NEW CRIEF OF THE TURKISH ARMY. It was officially announced in Constantinople yesterday evening that Abdul Kerim, Generalissimo of the Turkish army, had been dismissed, and Mehemet Ali appointed to succeed him. The dismissal of Redif Pacha, Minister of War, is reported as probable, but has not yet been confirmed officially. Mehemet Ali is a Prussian, whose real name is Schultz. He has shown himself capable as division commander at Montenegro and elsewhere.

THEY MUST COME HOME

The imperial steamer Sureja left Constantinople last night to bring Abdul Kerim, Reouf and Redif pachas back to Constanti nople. Suleiman Pacha has been appointed commander of the army in Roumelia. Assim Pacha, now Minister of Justice, has been appointed Governor of Adrianople. .

. WORK FOR MEHEMET. The Russians are advancing to destroy workshops of the railway at Jeni Saghra. Mehemet Ali Pacha with a considerable force has left Adrianople to meet the Russians. MORE TROOPS FOR THE DEPENCE.

Twenty thousand regulars and 20,000 volunteers have left Constantinople for Adrianople. The Mussulman inhabitants of Adrianople are arriving at Constantinople en masse, and are provided by the government with lodgings in the schools.

TURKEY CANNOT SAVE ADRIANOPLE.

The Standard's correspondent at Adrianople telegraphs as follows :- "I know on very high authority that the Porte does not expect to be able to prevent the Russians reaching Adrianople."

THE BUSSIAN ADVANCE.

The Russians are endeavoring with every prospect of success to obtain possession of Kasanlik and Slivno, which would give them control of the southern debouchment of the two most important passes of the Central Balkans. Turkish advices place the principal Russian force at Hainkoi, which is the southern debouchment of the chain, Boghaz and Tchivarditzkor passes. The Turks seem to base their hope of repelling the invasion wholly on the arrival of Suleiman Pacha and his army. It is improbable that the Russians will give time for that before throwing forward a sufficient force to seize and hold the passes.

MOVING ON ADRIANOPLE.

Various despatches represent that the movement on Jeni Saghra was a feint The real movement was directed toward a station further south, where the Russians have concentrated an army corps under orders to proceed at once to Adrianople. It is calculated that the Turkish forces not already locked in the Danubian fortresses do not exceed one hundred thousand and that the Grand Duke Nicholas has sufficient force at Tirnova to prevent their interfering with the movement on Adrianople.

ON THE MARCH FOR PHILIPPOPOLIS. The latest news from Constantinople is

THE RIGHT WING. A telegram from Shumla says the Russians from Nicopolis have occupied Lovacz, southeast of Plevna.

GIRDLING RUSTCHUK.

The Russian army moving on Rustchuk was ordered to begin the advance on the 16th inst. Although the advance will be slow the masking policy is abandoned and Rustchuk and Shumla will be besieged by infantry. The advance will enable the cavalry to move forward and throw a circle of observation close around the rayon of the fortress and isolate it.

BUSTCHUK AND SILISTRIA MENACED.

A correspondent at Bucharest sends the following:-"Rustchuk appears to be completely surrounded, but we have no news yet of the commencement of siege operations. When the blockade of Rustchuk is complete, so that its garrison cannot interfere with the Dobrudscha column, it is expected here that this Russian force will leave the line of the Chernavoda Railway and envelope Silistria.

THE DOBRUDSHA CONTROLLED.

It is officially announced that the Russians have possession of the whole line of of the Chernavods and Kustendji Railway, the Turks having evacuated and partly burned Chernavoda on Tuesday night.

MORE TURKISH ARMS. A steamer, stated to be English, has arrived at the month of the Boiana with ammunition for the Turks. The Consuls of Scutari are endeavoring to ascertain the name of the steamer and the port from which she came, in order to inform their re spective governments. GOING HOME. Turkish wounded at Antivari for Constantinople.

WIDDIN TO BE BESIEGED. A special from Nicopolis says 50,000 Russians are advancing from Nicopolis toward [Widdin to besiege the fortress and prevent the advance of Turkish troops between Misch and Sophia. The Roumanians at Kalafat are resuming the bombardment of Widdin, and will join in the siege.

GOING TO WIDDIN. Six Turkish battaiions are marching from Scutari to Nisch. They are going to establish a chain of communications with Sophia, in order to enable the garrison of Widdin to retreat in that direction

ENGLAND'S NEUTRAL POLICY.

In the House of Lords last evening Lord Stratheden moved for the papers on the Eastern question. He criticized the neutrality policy of the government as tending to diminish the influence of England. both now and at the conclusion of the

The Earl of Derby replied that the British Embassy at Constantinople exercised the influence which fairly belonged to a neutral friendly Power. As regarded the influence which England could exercise at the conclusion of the war he could not conceive a position in which we could interfere with more influence or effect than at the close of the war, when both combatants were more or less exhausted an I we still uncommitted to any course, and our forces fresh and unbroken. The government had previously stated what they considered

THANKS FROM THE RUSSIANS.

The Russian Ambassador had thanked him. Lord Derby continued, for giving so accurate a warning of the torpedoes which the Russian government would have to avoid. He repeated the statements made in the House of Commons as to the reasons for the movement of the fleet to Besika Bay that no explanation had been forwarded to the loreign Powers concerning this movement, as none was called for or required. He promised that any anthentic reports received concerning reported Russtan cruelties should be presented to Parliament; but the statements now current were probably

EXPECTED RISING OF GREEK BAYAHS.

An Athens correspondent telegraphs as follows:onicial telegrams speak of great excitement in Thrace and Macedonia, especially Philippopolis. and of measures concerted by the consuls and loca authorities for securing the public safety. Many people here expect a rising of Greek Rayahs in a lew days. There is no enthusiasm in Athens.

GIRDING FOR THE FRAY.

An Athens special to the Paris Temps reports that detachments of Greek volunteers have passed the Turkish frontier. The insurrectionary movement is expected to spread in Thessaly. The Minister of War is mobilizing the Greek troops and the Minister of the Interior is calling out volunteers. THE AGITATION SPREADING.

A despatch dated Athens, Thursday night, says: "The public mind is much agitated. The students have sent an address to the King, urging him to declare war against the Turks. The situation is critical. Volunteers are taking up arms. Massacres by Turkish irregulars are reported from various districts in Macedonia " HAS DIPLOMACY INTERVENED?

A telegram received from Orsova states that the Russian advance in Bulgaria has slackened in consequence of despatches received by Prince Gortschakoff from certain Powers. The Russians will only resume the march after securing their rear, which is now only protected by the Fourth corps. which is camped near Bucharest. PRICES, PANICS AND PRACE.

The advance in prices on the Paris Bourse was in consequence of rumors of an armistice between Turkey and Russia.

COUNTERACTING REPORTS OF ATROCUTIES A Paris correspondent states that Count Schouva off, in consequence of the bad impression produced by recent accounts of Russian atrocities, has sent lan urgent telegram to Prince Gortschakoff begging him to give the principal foreign correspondents every facility for visiting the places named as the

Being without money or friends, no attention was paid to until a week or so since, when Governor Rebinson was petitioned to commute his sentence to imprisonment for life, He refused, and on Monday last a Mrs. Cotton, stepdaughter of Penwell from Buffalo, appeared in Elmira. She engaged ex Speaker Jeremiah McGuire to make an effort to save her father. The law firm of McGuire & Faber at once laid the case before Governor Robinson, presenting its legal points, and asked that he grant a stay of execution uttil a writ of error could be obtained. He refused, saying that it must be done by a Supremo

At half-past nine last night McGuire & Taber served an order on District Attorney Taylor to appear before Judge Martin in Binghamton to hear a motion for a stay. They presented an affidavit that the Governor had given his opinion that a justice ought to grant a stay and give counsel time to propare a bill of exceptions. Judge Martin could not hear the case. CHICAGO, July 19, 1877. The uneasiness which developed itself here yesterday among the depositors of the local savings banks regarding the security of their deposits, and which had the effect to develop a run on the State Savings Institution, was by no means allayed to-day. Yester day the above named bank was the only one of which extra demands were made; but to day the Fidelity an the Farmers and Mechanics' banks experienced somewhat of a run. On the opening of the State Savings Bank matters had a panicky outlook, so great was the crowd and so clamorous for their deposits. The bank officers fluaily determined to take advantage of the thirty and sixty days rule of limitation governing demands for deposits, and posted notices to this effect. Small accounts were settled on demand. At the other savings bank there was a similar policy pursued, and with good effect. the Farmers and Mechanics' banks experienced some

THE SEA SERPENT'S PROGRESS.

NAHANT SLIGHTLY EXCITED-WHAT A WELL ENOWN AND ESTIMABLE CITIZEN OF NAN-HASKET SAW LAST SUNDAY.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HEBALD.] NAHANT, Mass., July 19, 1877 The sea serpent sensation-an account of which was forwarded to the HERALD yesterday—is still the chief topic of conversation here to Nahant and, in fact, all along the entire coast. Of course there is more or les of ridicule advanced, but still there are very many reputable persons who believe that the waters are in habited by a huge snake, such as has been described Mr. J. T. Gardham, a well known and estimable citizen of Nanhisket, and engaged in business in Boston claims that he saw the mouster last Sunday while sitting on the piazza of the Waverley House at the beach.

MR. GARDHAM'S STORY. "It was between two and three o'clock," says Mr. Sardham, "that my attention was called to an unusual appearance on the water, in the direction Gun Rock, about half a mile distant. I immediat others, unmi akably saw a sea serpent or some monster of the deep not generally known to natural history. The head was distinctly visible and raised about eight inches above the water line. The formation of the head, owing to the distance, I could not define, but at intervals it seemed to be enveloped in white sea foam as if in the act of spouting. The length of this snakeship seemed to be about forty feet, and I counted twenty fins, or romething like them, projecting out of the water about three inches, one loot apart, from the head to where the tail was supposed to be. He was first seen approaching the shore between minot's Light and Gun Rock at a very rapid rate, and in a straight line, until he suddenly whirled around and faced the sea. This he repeated twice, and finally disappeared, apparently heading for Nahant. He was seen about half an hour.
